LAUREL POINT

Russell Ridgeway, wife and children spent Sunday with relatives on Cheat River.

Mrs. Geo. Freeman was a guest of her daughter Mrs. Jesse Camp near Ruth mines, March 25. Mr. Camp lost three stacks of hay and quite a lot of fence on that day by fire caught from a passing train. A number of forest fires have been raging the past few days. Among the losses was the nice home of Hood Barns near Little Falls, which caught from such a fire while Mr. Barns and his family were all from home except Mrs. Barns. The house and contents were consumed.

Mrs. Inda Henry spent the week end with her cousin Mrs. Jas. DeVault. Her Uncle Mr. Francis Stansberry having died at the home of his daughter Mrs. DeVault on the evening of March 25th with diseases incident to old age. He leaves three children, Mrs. Mary DeVault, Mrs. Clara Michael and William Stansberry of Fairmont. Mr. Stansberry was loved by all who knew him for his many beautiful traits of character. He was aged about 87 years. Interment was made in the cemetery at Pisgah where his wife and other relatives are buried.

Miss Mabel Snider is spending a few days with her brother, Dana, at Hildebrand.

The community dinner at the school house was largely attended and a real sociable, general good time prevailed.

Talks were given by County Superintendent Hastings and Rev. A. M. Hammond.

J. H. Henry and family of Morgantown spent Sunday here.

Mrs. A. M. Hammond of Arnettsville joined her husband here for the last few days of the revival service which extended over a period of 10 days. The attendance was good considering the time of the year. There were several conversions and four united with the church. Rev. Hammond announced his next preaching day as April 4, at which time he will receive and baptize the converts.

Mrs. Jas. Smallwood and Mrs. John Price of Opekiska spent a few days here last week with their sisters, Mrs. S. J. Stevens and Mrs. John C. Shaffer. Mrs. Stevens has been quite ill with influenza but is somewhat improved.

A large number of persons from this place attended a sale at the home of

For Luncheon—
Ice Cream

Ice Cream is the ideal luncheon.

Pure milk and cream and crystal cane sugar, flavored tastefully with nourishing chocolate or health-giving fruit and fruit juices, it supplies just the food values and in just the right quantity for the mid-day repast.

Consider a moment. A heavy luncheon slows up your work for the first two hours of the afternoon. Ice Cream is as easily digested as a glass of milk. A good restaurant is hard to find.

IMPERIAL

Ice Cream, always dependable as to quality, is served everywhere. Hurried eating is ruining American health. Ice Cream is quickly served, leaving ample time, even in the shortest-luncheon period, for a bit of a walk afterward.

Imperial
The Cream of All Ice Creams.

—is served in an endless variety of ways

There was a time when the stenographer's luncheon of an ice cream soda and a window shopping stroll was considered the makings of a feast. But that time is past. Everyone knows now that Miss Keys' intuition was right, because everyone has come to recognize that Ice Cream is a real food, as well as an inviting confection. Beginning today, eat a plate every day at luncheon for a week and verify her finding for yourself.

The Y. M. C. A. Campaign

Has Started off with Unlimited

ENTHUSIASM

But Everybody Must "Come Across"

Enthusiasm is a great thing. It is absolutely necessary to the successful attainment of the Y. M. C. A.'s goal. It can't be dispensed with during this Annual Membership Campaign. But deep down in every loyal Fairmonter's heart there should be the firm resolve to SUPPORT THIS CAMPAIGN WITH MORE THAN ENTHUSIASM.

Money is needed---money is the actual result which must be gained---money is what the Y.M.C.A. needs so that its services to the community continue to grow in breadth and influence---money must be forthcoming from Fairmont to keep Fairmont's Y.M.C.A. on its toes in community uplift.
